1 次の英文を読んで、問いに答えなさい。

“Mary and I have come here to help you,” said Ben. “But it is raining today. What can we do?”
 “There are a lot of things to do on the farm. On a day like this we work in the house. When the rain is ① over, we work in the fields.” said Aunt Susan. ②

Soon she asked Uncle Ted and Ben to paint the bedroom floors. Then she and Mary started to make cakes.
 Ben was happy because Uncle Ted told him to paint the floor of one bedroom alone.

He worked hard, and soon almost all of the floor was painted. Then Mary came to the door. “Ben, see these cakes,” she said, “Aunt Susan and I made these cakes, and I know they are good. Come down and get some from Aunt Susan.” She looked in the bedroom and then she began to laugh. Ben looked at the floor of the room. Next he looked at his feet. Then he looked at the door. The door was over there. He could not walk on the painted floor. “You aren’t a bird, so you can’t fly to the door. I’ll call Uncle Ted. He knows how to help,” said Mary. ③ ④ ⑤

注 bedroom floor 寝室の床 alone ひとりで

3 次の英文を読んで、問いに答えなさい。

There was a time when each family had to make almost all the things that it used. People built their own homes, made their own clothes, and grew their own food. They had to do things that other people do for us today.

People did not have good transportation and couldn't trade with other cities. It was difficult for people to carry things from one city to another before they had cars, trains, and planes.

Today trains, cars, and ships carry almost everything that people need. People buy clothes in stores. Food grown on farms is carried all over the world. Transportation has changed our life. It has made life easier.
